Whistleblower Policy for the Oceanic Preservation Society

The Oceanic Preservation Society (the “Non-Profit”) requires its directors, officers, employees, and volunteers (each, a “Non-Profit Individual”) to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Non-Profit, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

ARTICLE I

PURPOSE

Section 1.01 The purpose of this whistleblower policy (the “Policy”) is to:

(a) Encourage and enable Non-Profit Individuals to raise concerns regarding suspected illegal or unethical conduct or practices or violations of the Non-Profit’s policies on a confidential and, if desired, anonymous basis.

(b) Protect Non-Profit Individuals from retaliation for raising such concerns.

(c) Establish policies and procedures for the Non-Profit to receive and investigate reported concerns and address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions.

ARTICLE II

REPORTING RESPONSIBILITY

Section 2.01 Reporting Responsibility. Each Non-Profit Individual has the responsibility to report in good faith any concerns about actual or suspected violations of the Non-Profit’s policies or any federal, state, or municipal law or regulation governing the Non-Profit’s operations (each, a “Concern”). Appropriate subjects to report under this Policy include but are not limited to financial improprieties, accounting or audit matters, ethical violations, or other similar illegal or improper practices, such as:

(a) Fraud.

(b) Theft.

(c) Embezzlement.

(d) Bribery or kickbacks.

(e) Misuse of the Non-Profit’s assets.

(f) Undisclosed conflicts of interest.

Section 2.02 Acting in Good Faith. Anyone reporting a Concern must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation of law and/or ethical standards. Any unfounded allegation that proves to have been made maliciously, recklessly, or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious offense and result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or volunteer status.

Section 2.03 Other Types of Concerns. Non-Profit Individuals should use the Non-Profit’s existing complaint procedures and mechanisms to report other issues not covered by Section 2.01 of this Policy, unless those channels are themselves implicated in wrongdoing. This Policy is not intended to provide a means of appealing the outcomes resulting from those other mechanisms.
ARTICLE III
NO RETALIATION

Section 3.01 No Non-Profit Individual who in good faith reports a Concern or participates in a review or investigation of a Concern shall be subject to harassment, retaliation, or, in the case of an employee, adverse employment consequences because of such report or participation. This protection extends to Non-Profit Individuals who report in good faith, even if the allegations are, after an investigation, not substantiated.

Section 3.02 No Non-Profit Individual will be subject to liability or retaliation for disclosing a trade secret in compliance with 18 U.S.C. §1833 either:

(a) In confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a Concern; or

(b) In a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding under seal.

Section 3.03 Any Non-Profit Individual who retaliates against someone who in good faith has reported or participated in a review or investigation of a Concern will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment or volunteer status.

Section 3.04 Anyone who believes that a Non-Profit Individual has been subject to harassment, retaliation, or adverse employment consequences as a result of making a good faith report or participating in a review or investigation of a Concern should contact the Compliance Officer listed in Article V of this Policy. Nothing in this Policy shall limit or alter the procedures and protections in the Non-Profit’s anti-retaliation policy.

ARTICLE IV
CONFIDENTIALITY

Section 4.01 The Non-Profit encourages anyone reporting a Concern to identify himself or herself in order to facilitate the investigation of the Concern. However, Concerns may be submitted on a confidential and/or anonymous basis. The Non-Profit shall take reasonable steps to protect the identity of the Non-Profit Individual, and shall keep reports of Concerns confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

ARTICLE V
REPORTING PROCEDURES

Section 5.01 Prompt Reporting. All Concerns should be reported as soon as practicable consistent with this Policy.

(i) Promptly investigating or overseeing the investigation of each reported Concern.

(ii) Advising the Board of Directors of each reported Concern.

(iii) Reporting compliance activity to the full Board of Directors at each regularly scheduled Board meeting.

(b) Acknowledgment of Receipt. Any supervisor, manager, or Board member who receives a report of a Concern must promptly notify the Compliance Officer of such report in writing. The Compliance Officer shall notify the reporting individual and acknowledge receipt of each reported Concern within five (5) business days, unless the report was submitted anonymously or no return address has been provided.

(c) Investigation. The Compliance Officer shall conduct a prompt, discreet, and objective review or investigation based on the submitted report. A full investigation may not be possible if a report made anonymously is vague or general. If deemed necessary in his or her sole discretion or upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, the Compliance Officer may engage legal counsel, accountants, or other experts to assist in the investigation. The Compliance Officer may delegate the investigation responsibilities to any Board committee or other individual, including third parties, as long as:

(ii) The delegation does not compromise the identity of the Non-Profit Individual who reported anonymously or confidentially.

(d) Resolution. The Compliance Officer shall:

(i) Recommend appropriate corrective action to the Board of Directors, if warranted by the investigation.

(ii) Oversee the implementation of a resolution based on the determination of the Board.

(iii) Follow up with the reporting individual, if possible, for closure of the reported Concern.
(e) Accounting and Auditing Matters. The Compliance Officer shall immediately notify the Board of Directors of any Concerns regarding accounting practices, internal controls, or auditing, and shall work with the Board of Directors until the matter is resolved.

PERIODIC REVIEWS

Section 6.01 To ensure that the Non-Profit operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its reputation or tax-exempt status, the Board of Directors shall conduct periodic reviews of this Policy.

ARTICLE VII
